Comments

Strengths:

- support from school leadership and use of balanced system is enabling greater focus on SLCN across the whole school and this is to be developed in the future work with satellite settings
- range and depth of provision for SLCN is evidenced in detailed
- clear understanding of development points in relation to family support and workforce

Development points:

- to extend communication with families via website and social media to provide them with information about how to support their child at home e.g. PECs guidance, Makaton signs, 'what to do if...', links to national websites
- to consider an overarching staff audit to summarise staff knowledge, skills and development needs in relation to SLCN (and wider SEND).
