Milestone Academy
PSPD framework
River & Waterfall Pathway
Phase 3 & 4

PSPD will be embedded across the day to master self help, independence and social skills generalising these skills in a variety of activities. Targets will be transferred into a range of activities experienced in PSPD weekly sessions to consolidate skills across environments with a focus on PSHE and RSE. There are six key areas covered within the Framework and Curriculum map in line with Government guidance. These include: Self awareness, Managing feelings, Healthy lifestyles, Changing and growing, Selfcare-support and safety and The world I live in. Differentiated levels of staff support are available to promote independence as appropriate.

PSPD objectives are accessed through daily, discrete and direct teaching sessions. In addition to discrete sessions PSPD objectives are achieved through daily routines and functional activities/ lessons. Alongside structured curriculum objectives PSPD is embedded into continuous learning opportunities including:

- Teeth cleaning
- Hair brushing
- Handwashing
- Toileting
- Dressing and undressing skills
- Eating and drinking skills

Individualised Provision Plan targets may also include a range of PSPD skills to be accessed within learning opportunities.

Level	Self Awareness
M4	 Respond to stimuli about what we are good at and/or enjoy. Respond to stimuli about what we enjoy learning about in school. Respond to stimuli about people who are different to us in different ways. Respond to stimuli which depict kindness and unkindness.
M5	 Describe what we are good at and/or enjoy. Identify some things that make us special and unique as learners. Describe what we like and dislike doing as learners.

	 Describe our own learning targets or goals. Describe what it means to treat others in a kind and fair way. Recognise that everyone is unique and special and no one should be treated unfairly. Describe and give examples of what it means to be kind and unkind. Identify some of the ways of telling a trusted adult if someone is being unkind to us.
M6	 Identify some of our own personal strengths and skills (things we are really good at or can do really well). Describe the particular ways we like to learn. Identify the difference between a short term target and an aspirational, long term goal. Recognise what prejudice means. Explain what it means to discriminate against someone. Recognise that prejudice and discrimination in any forms are unacceptable. Explain what is meant by teasing, hurtful and bullying behaviour. Explain how we do not need to put up with someone being unkind, hurtful, abusive to, or bullying, us. Recognise what is meant by peer pressure and peer influence.
M7	 Demonstrate how to recognise and appreciate personal strengths in other people. Describe simple strategies we can use to help us be organised in our learning. Explain how we might achieve our targets and goals (e.g. breaking longer-term goals down into several short term targets). Identify some examples of different forms of prejudice and discrimination we may have seen/heard about (e.g. based on religion, gender, age, race, disability, sexual orientation). Describe how and where to seek help if we think someone is behaving in a discriminatory way towards us or others. Identify some of the ways in which pressure might be put on us by other people, including online. Describe ways we might challenge peer pressure. Identify different types of bullying (including online) and what the impact of bullying might be. Identify strategies to help us if we are being bullied, including online. Describe how to recognise the difference between friendship groups and gangs; describe some of the risks of becoming part of a gang.
M8	 Explain how what others say and think about us can positively and negatively affect the way we feel about ourselves. Identify some simple strategies to help manage negative opinions/comments. Describe how it feels to achieve a target. Demonstrate ways we can develop our strengths and skills through practice. Identify some ways in which our current learning will help us in the future. Explain what stereotyping means. Demonstrate simple constructive strategies for responding to prejudice and discrimination.

	 Give reasons why we should expect to be treated with respect by others. Describe strategies that can be used if someone is using pressure to persuade us to do something, including online. Recognise the responsibilities of bystanders to report bullying and hurtful behaviour. Identify trusted adults/ services that can help us if we or someone we know has been the target of unkind, hurtful, abusive or bullying behaviour, including online.
M9	 Describe what other people might perceive our personal strengths, talents and skills to be. Explain that how we feel about ourselves (self-esteem) can be affected by what is happening in our lives. Give reasons why media, including social media can affect how people feel about themselves. Give examples of how our personal strengths, interests and skills may help us in our future lives, choices or employment. Identify ways of managing emotions in relation to future employment aspirations. Recognise that stereotypes based on religion, gender, age, race, disability or sexual orientation, can cause harm (e.g. how they might normalise non-consensual behaviour or encourage prejudice). Explain how we should show respect to others and others' beliefs, including people in the wider community. Describe how we can sometimes put ourselves under pressure to do what others are doing, or what we think others want us to do. Explain ways of safely responding if we experience or witness unacceptable behaviours. Identify reasons why we might put ourselves under pressure, and how others may apply pressure or encourage us to join a group or a gang; exit strategies and how to access appropriate support. Describe the risks and law relating to carrying a weapon.
L1	 Identify people/services that can help us if we or someone we know is in an unhealthy relationship (online/offline). Identify some of the roles within families and who you might do different activities with. Explain why it is important to listen to other people's point of view, demonstrate active listening, and demonstrate simple ways of resolving differences.
